Embracing uniqueness ...

... inspiring growth

About High Hopes

Since 1984, High Hopes has been a beacon of support for children of all abilities, equipping them with the resources they need to thrive. Preschool tuition and therapy reimbursement cover only a portion of the cost of providing our high-quality services. Community support is vital in bridging this gap and ensuring our programs continue making a meaningful impact on the lives of children and families. By becoming a sponsor, you help foster a community where hope, inclusion, and growth are embraced daily, empowering us to offer our unique combination of inclusive preschool education and pediatric therapy.

Our mission is to equip children, youth, and their families with the skills necessary to succeed through education, therapeutic services, and loving support.
